Other Summer Recommendations:

Please continue to have your children read every day over the summer. If your child does not yet know all letter names and sounds; cannot read short, easy-to-sound-out-words, such as "pot," "cat," "sun;" and/or does not quickly read very common words, such as: the, this, him, her, with, etc., please spend extra time over the summer with your child on these basic reading skills so they will be ready to enter first grade. Your child's RAZ-KIDS and IXL online subscriptions will work throughout the entire summer, so please have your child use those resources a few times each week.

Wishing you a safe and enjoyable summer!
